What do ISPOR Meetings Offer?

ISPOR Meetings are a forum for discussion and dissemination of information surrounding the science of pharmacoeconomics and outcomes research. The goal of the meetings is to bring together experts in the health economics and outcomes research (HEOR) field to share innovative research methods and health policy developments and to provide an opportunity to learn from each other to advance the science.

"... this meeting has filled in many gaps in understanding [the] health outcomes and economics field and was a wonderful opportunity to network with colleagues and vendors alike."

Why Attend?

ISPOR is recognized globally as the leading scientific and educational organization for outcomes research and its use in health care decisions.

- Learn new & novel experiences in the conduct/use of HEOR.
- Stay current via cutting edge plenary sessions and presentations on innovative and controversial issues.
- Share research, ideas, and developments in the field and help advance the science.
- Network and renew connections with clients, colleagues or collaborators.

"As ever, the ISPOR conference has been very useful both as a learning and sharing of knowledge opportunity and also as an opportunity to network within the industry."
