Task Force	USED FOR SCIENTIFIC INITIATIVES ONLY: Task Forces consist of groups of experts who collaborate to develop Good Practices for Outcomes Research Reports on a specific topic. Proposals to form a Task Force are submitted to the Health Science Policy Council, which makes recommendations to the ISPOR Board for approval. A Task Force is composed of experts best suited to achieve the defined tasks and deliverables. When the goal of a Task Force is achieved, the Task Force is dissolved. Their draft report is submitted to a reviewer group and then to the general membership for comment. All comments are published on the ISPOR website if appropriate, the report is then modified and submitted to Value in Health as an ISPOR Task Force Report, with the final decision for publication in the journal by the Co-Editors-in-Chief. SIGs are expected to develop these topics into educational and scientific reports and/or tools that benefit the Society and the HEOR community. SIGs also monitor and share information relating to these topics with membership. SIGs are initiated by ISPOR members interested in a specific topic or ISPOR may identify timely topics to be developed. Once initiated, SIGs are open to any ISPOR member interested in participating. Proposals are developed with the assistance of the Scientific and Health Policy Initiatives staff and approved by the Task Force and SIG Committee of the Health Science Policy Council. ISPOR Student Chapters and their members are important stakeholder groups of the Society. Through engagement with ISPOR Student Chapters, members of Chapter groups work on the orderly development of the discipline of health economics and outcomes research in their respective regions. A Chapter may be a Chapter of a city, a state or province, a country, a region of a country, or a region encompassing more than one country.

Benefits

- ISPOR Student Chapters benefit through the use of the logo of the Society, ISPOR's well-established reputation, and the international affiliation and support it provides.
- ISPOR headquarters provides staff support, financial assistance (where Chapters qualify based on regional economic conditions), and maintenance of a page on the ISPOR website.
- Chapters are encouraged to publish activities in ISPOR's regional newsletters, E-Bulletin and on the ISPOR website.

Engagement with ISPOR

Members of an ISPOR Chapter actively participate in fulfilling ISPOR mission and vision on a regional and global level. They provide ideas, knowledge, skills and experience, support ISPOR-led initiatives, and contribute to the organization's scientific and research excellence. Examples of ISPOR Chapters members' engagement with ISPOR include:

- Contribution to the scientific program of ISPOR Conferences.
- Participation in ISPOR events, such as annual and biannual meetings, In-person training courses, Short Courses, and educational webinars.
- Co-organization of ISPOR regional conferences.

- To familiarize the students with the affairs of ISPOR and further the goals and objectives of the Society.

How to establish an ISPOR Student Chapter?

For assistance with the chapter formation process the Chapter Development Committee developed a helpful flyer that can be found here: https://www.ispor.org/docs/default-source/default-document-library/ispor\_form\_a\_student\_chapter\_flyer.pdf?sfvrsn=f221f516\_2

Important Information before proceeding

- A minimum of 3 Student Chapter Officers must hold active memberships with ISPOR

ISPOR Adopt-A-Chapter Mentor/Mentee Program

- Mentee Eligibility

A new ISPOR chapter, an inactive ISPOR chapter, or an existing ISPOR chapter that needs help can request to be a mentee in the ISPOR Adopt-A-Chapter MENTOR/MENTEE Program.

- Mentor Eligibility

An existing ISPOR chapter that (1) is active and (2) has significant engagement/participation in the past can volunteer to be a mentor in the ISPOR Adopt-A-Chapter MENTOR/MENTEE Program.

- Matching rule

A mentor and a mentee will be matched primarily based on the topic interest of mentee chapter. Other factors will also be taken into consideration (e.g. geographic location, mentor/mentee preference).

- Mentor/Mentee communication

It is recommended that the mentor/mentee pairs communicate once a month. However, the actual communication frequency should be decided by each mentor/mentee pair based on their need and availability.

- Discussion topics

Below is a list of potential topics that a mentor/mentee pair could discuss. It is by no means an exhaustive list and the actual topics should be dependent on mentee chapter needs and mentor's chapter experience.

- Education/Workshop plans
- Social activities/events
- Annual Report
- Fundraising plans
- Recruitment plans

- Other requirements

A communication timeline should be submitted to ISPOR student network by each mentor/mentee pair before the start of each semester specifying their plan of communication. A verification form should be submitted to ISPOR student network by each mentor/mentee pair at the end of each semester describing when they met and what topics were discussed.

Submit Student Chapter Annual Report*No later than January 31st, 2019 (appendix pg. 32)

- This is mandatory to maintain good standing with the organization. Chapters who do not submit an Annual Report for more than two consecutive years will be deemed inactive and removed from the active list of chapters. Chapters can be reinstated if there is not adequate leadership to maintain the chapter and it needs to be reformed;
- Consider keeping a living document to collect information for the annual report and be sure to contact the Outgoing Chapter President from the prior year since they will have a lot of the information needed for you to complete;
- A suggestion is to write up all relevant information at the end of each semester or after each event

Student Chapter Model Constitution

- Familiarize yourself with the Student Chapter Model Constitution (see appendix pg. 34-36)

Chapter Leader Roles Clearly Defined

- Ensure your officers are helping manage the local chapter
- Assign specific responsibilities to specific officers (i.e. Treasurer responsible for fundraising)

Conduct Chapter Meetings & Events

- Meeting regularly (at least monthly) is important to ensure chapters stay engaged and productive
- Consider having officer meetings sometime before general chapter meetings
- Schedule and Distribute meeting information and agendas in advance
- Organize meeting and allows members to anticipate what topics will be discussed
- Use a planning calendar and set-up events before the semester starts – the summer is a great time to start setting up events
- Put events in an electronic calendar to be shared with chapter members

Types of Student Events

Schedule a variety of events (see case studies page 27-31)

- Type of events to consider planning: service activities (philanthropy), educational sessions, socials, etc... Some examples of each are:
  - Service: participate in a fundraising walks, charity fundraisers, food drives, soup kitchens, etc...
  - Education: CV/resume clinic, Mentor-Mentee student pairs, guest speakers, educational seminars, journal club, etc...
- Take photos to share in the Student Newsletter and on social media platforms

Collaborate with other student organizations

Partner with other organizations on campus to participate in a variety of events if there are other similar organizations at your University.

- If there are other student organizations on campus, partner with them to engage your members in a wide variety of activities

Prepare a submission for the Outstanding Student Chapter Award

(See Appendix at pg. 37)

Succession Planning Tips

Managing Leadership Transition

ISPOR Student Chapter Officers are elected every year, which makes having an effective leadership succession plan in place paramount for the Chapter to:

- Prepare for the departure of current leadership
- Identify future potential leaders
- Secure for smooth transition of leadership
- Ensure leadership continuity
- Prevent disruption to Chapter organization and development

Leadership transition plan should include:

- Timeline of leadership succession process.
- Communication plan with members.
- Delegation of duties, roles, and responsibilities within the key Chapter leadership.
- Definition of potential candidate that will help to identify talent from the region.
- Opportunity for exchange of knowledge and experience between the outgoing and new leadership.

Emergency Succession Plan

A vacancy in the office of the President is filled by the President-elect. If both vacate, the Chapter Leadership elects the President to complete the term, and the members elect the incoming President as well as the President-elect at the next election. A vacancy in any other office resulting from death, disability, or resignation is filled on a pro tem basis by a Chapter member appointed by the President with the approval of the Chapter Leadership. Successor Chapter Leader members will serve until the expiration of the term of their predecessors.

In 2019 ISPOR will relaunch the Student Recruitment Campaign now that we have better technology to track the students who join through the campaign. You will advise anyone who signs up from your chapter to use the source code Students19 at check out when they submit their application. Once the campaign timeframe is over the ISPOR staff will look for anyone who joined during the timeperiod using that source code and they will be counted for your chance to win one of the prizes below.

*Incentives for top 3 chapters based on percentage of growth (Number of members prior to start date / Number of members after end date.)

New Member Information Session Invite (See appendix pg. 40)

- Host an information session aimed at educating new members that join the chapter about the local and national scale activities that are available to them as a member of the association. Each new student member should be assigned a buddy that will make sure they feel welcomed, comfortable, and are brought up to speed about the organization. To further support this effort, ISPOR will be introducing a New Member 101 Conference call that will be archived as a webinar. In addition to this effort chapters are encouraged to offer a breakfast or luncheon to welcome them to the chapter as a great personal touch.

Prospective Member Information Session Invite (See appendix pg. 41)

- Host an information session for prospects by identifying students that would be interested in learning more about ISPOR. This can be done through “tabling”, posting flyers on campus, having a faculty advisor recommend the information session to students that are in a relevant academic program, etc.

Leverage the Chapter Collateral Material Order Form available in the Chapter President Resource Center section of student website (See appendix pg. 45)

- Use the chapter collateral order form to obtain ISPOR resources to provide to prospective members and to give away at events as incentives. If you have questions contact ISPOR Staff Liaisons.

CHAPTER 7: CHAPTER GOOD PRACTICES – CASE STUDIES

West Virginia University

In addition to all of the activities listed, ISPOR is a valuable Graduate Student Organization not only within the WVU School of Pharmacy but also across the Health Science Campus. Our active participation in helping in the organization of WVU events such as Van Liere gives our chapter good recognition for our efforts. We are recognized as a School of Pharmacy student organization and coordinate monthly with the Presidents of all School of Pharmacy student organization to improve the quality in both the PharmD and PhD program. We spearhead the interaction of graduate and professional students in the School of Pharmacy. In addition, WVU ISPOR's Student Chapter is a member of the Robert Byrd Health Sciences Center Graduate Student Organization (GSO) which is a group of doctoral and master's students throughout the University. Our chapter president, Drishti Shah, is also highly involved in the GSO. She was also a part of the GSO committee that was responsible for conducting nominations and selecting the winner for the "Best Faculty Award" across WVU Health Science Campus.

Our chapter members are also very active in showcasing their research findings in various arenas within our Institution. It is due to the active participation of ISPOR student members Xiaohui Zhao and Drishti Shah in the WVU Meeting of Behavioral and Biomedical Sciences (MOBB), that they were awarded the inaugural Dr. James Stevenson Scholarship Award for 2017 (<http://www.hsc.wvu.edu/resoff/behavioral-biomedical-sciences/>). Further, due to the active contribution of our Chapter President towards WVU ISPOR Chapter and other organizations within WVU, she was recently awarded the Outstanding Student Award within the School of Pharmacy.

Participation in University-wide 3-minute thesis for PhD Candidates

As the most senior member, WVU ISPOR's member, Snow Feng, competed in the University's Three Minute Thesis Competition after practicing with the WVU ISPOR Student Chapter. Her dissertation research was about "Switching from Vitamin K Antagonists to Non-Vitamin K Oral Anticoagulants, Drug-drug Interactions and Health Outcomes among Working-age Adults with Atrial Fibrillation" was very well received. Usually for such podium competitions and presentations, our members usually get together to help the speaker by serving as an audience during the practice session and by providing useful feedback. We plan to do the same for our member Xiaohui Zhao whose research on "Incremental Burden for Osteoarthritis" has been selected for podium presentation at the ISPOR Conference in Baltimore. This year has been a great year in terms of community service activities for the WVU ISPOR student chapter. One of our most successful events of the year was the Halloween themed WVU-ISPOR Annual Bake Sale event (October 30th, 2017), where we managed to raise $ 200 to donate food cans to the Morgantown Food drive, which gives food to children in need in the area of Morgantown, West Virginia. As a part of the "ISPOR Good Deed of the Year" all ISPOR members sent a personally signed card with happy messages to Jacob, a 9 year old with Stage 4 high-risk neuroblastoma. Doctors had told his family in early October that he probably has only a month to live. So the family had decided to celebrate Christmas early in 2017 and Jacob wanted people to celebrate with him by sending him cards. WVU ISPOR members tried their best by sending him cards with encouraging words and happy thoughts. With more than 2,000 deaths occurring each day from heart diseases in the US, our student chapter tries to make the most out of every opportunity to promote a healthy lifestyle. Being a part of the School of Pharmacy at WVU, our student chapter is fortunate to be close to other health institutions like the school of medicine and the school of dentistry. So, we often take advantage of this and participate in various health promotional activities organized by other schools. On this Valentine's Day, WVU ISPOR student chapter members donned red attire to support American Heart Month along with American Pharmacists Association members.

Lastly, new students coming to our department from various parts of the country often struggle with receiving appropriate information about living in Morgantown and life at WVU. Our Chapter, under the leadership of our former ISPOR secretary, Pragya Rai took the task of developing a "Welcome to WVU HSOR New Student's Guide." The guide provided information on how to reach Morgantown, nearest airports and bus stations, best places to rent apartments in Morgantown and things required to be done during the first one month of entering our program.

Examples:

Educational Activities:

AAPS-ISPOR organized Pharmaceutical Science Research Symposium (PSRS)

Our chapter in collaboration with WVU and University of Pittsburgh's AAPS student chapter helped in organizing the 8th Annual Pharmaceutical Science Research Symposium (PSRS). This event rotates between University of Pittsburgh, West Virginia University, and Duquesne University. This year the event was hosted by University of Pittsburgh on June 21st, 2017. In addition to organizing the event, several ISPOR members also presented their research at the conference and won awards for the same.

The purpose of this event was to:

- a. Connect, collaborate, and communicate with regional AAPS and ISPOR chapters to enhance interschool interactions, share research ideas and experience, create a regional annual Pharmacy Research focused meeting, and to establish connections with current and future leaders of the pharmaceutical industry.
  - b. Provide educational podium and poster presentations of current topics under the umbrella, "Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Research in the Era of Big Data: Rationale, Methods and Tool.
  - c. Provide students the opportunity to ask career-guided questions to members of academia and government to better their understanding of the demands and expectations associated with each field.
3. Internship Experience Presentation

While academia provides a great environment to sharpen our research and teaching skills, utilizing these skills in a real-world job setting is a different ball game. The WVU ISPOR Student Chapter President, Drishti Shah and chapter member, Pragya Rai were able to receive summer internships at leading biopharmaceutical companies Abbvie and Amgen respectively in the year 2017. In order to share their experience and skills that they learnt during the internship with rest of the WVU ISPOR members and school of pharmacy students, they hosted a discussion forum with faculty and students. The aim of this discussion forum was to guide students in their internship application process, share tools to enhance communication skills and expand knowledge on the structure and working of a HEOR team in a Pharma Industry.

Webinars/Journal Clubs

Our chapter organizes monthly WVU ISPOR meetings wherein our chapter President shares with other members' important topics/information that is discussed during the monthly ISPOR President's Meeting. While the first 15 to 20 minutes of the meetings are utilized for the exchange of information, the other half of the meeting is frequently used for journal clubs and webinars, Our first journal club for the year 2017 was organized on 6th February, 2017 on the topic "Feasibility of a novel mHealth management system to capture and improve medication adherence among adolescents with asthma." The presenter for this topic was Pragya Rai. This year the focus of our journal club was use of Digital Technology in HEOR. Following this we organized three more journal clubs on topics, use of twitter in big data analytics, use of EMR data, and use of personalized medicines for improving health outcomes.

This year, we were fortunate to recruit members from other departments such as Clinical and Translational Sciences, Pharmaceutical Sciences, and Pharm D students. These students are not members of the main ISPOR student network. Therefore, our chapter also arranged the showcase of several ISPOR educational webinars, so that our Pharm D and other members can make the most out of the webinars.

We bought the chapter members and faculty together by facilitating several ISPOR webinars such as:

1. Good practices for successful job search on July 6, 2017
2. Estimating Health-State Utility for Economic Models in Clinical Studies on Sept 14, 2017
3. Disease Model Calibration on December 18, 2017
4. Drug Pricing on February 21st, 2018,

In addition to attending ISPOR webinars, we also showcased a webinar organized by Academy Health on "Pitfalls and Improvements to ACA's Risk Adjustment" in January 2017 and a webinar on Medical Science Liaison (MSL) without industry experience on October 6th, 2017 by speaker Martijn Bijker. Receiving knowledge on career as a Medical Science and outcomes liaison was widely appreciated by Pharm D students.

Social Activities:

WVU ISPOR Holiday Pot Luck Lunch & Gift Exchange

Following the traditions from the past few years, once again, in the beginning of December 2017(after the end of finals), WVU ISPOR student chapter organized a holiday potluck. ISPOR students and faculty in the department participated in the holiday gift exchange (white elephant) which was followed by a multiethnic potluck. Our students and faculty cooked and brought some delicious food items from their culture. This is also a great way to celebrate the cultural diversity within our organization.

Volunteer Activities:

Helped WVU Food Pantry

Our chapter members helped WVU's own food pantry ("The Rack") by distributing food items to people in need. Since 2010, The Rack has provided WVU students with perishable and non-perishable food items. The WVU food pantry operates at two main locations, the Mountainlair and Arnold Hall. The Rack staff and volunteers participate in community service activities and assists WVU student organizations with their programming efforts.

Mercer University

Mercer ISPOR is the primary campus organization that provides students with an in depth introduction to research and Health Economics Outcomes Research (HEOR). There are not many opportunities in our College of Pharmacy, outside of the working experience and expertise of a few faculty that provide students with a solid foundation of knowledge of regarding HEOR. Mercer does not offer Health Economics and Outcomes Research degree programs, thus as the chapter leader I do my best to incorporate professionals in the field that will be able to provide members knowledge, insight and inspiration to pursue the field. Participation in Mercer ISPOR has opened doors for students to take advantage of multiple research and industry opportunities at Mercer, regionally and nationally. The majority of graduating students from our chapter secure coveted internships, APPE Rotations, Residencies and Fellowship experiences.

For the community, Mercer ISPOR promotes to high school and undergraduate students who attend Mercer College of Pharmacy Admission events. Officers and members promote careers that assess "value for healthcare" to attendees. Finally, our weekly community service events where we provide point of care services to the those in need in the community via blood pressure screenings, cholesterol and glucose screenings, we promote disease prevention and provide our members direct patient care experiences.

Examples:

ISPOR/GSHP Journal Club Competition

Book of Terms Competition: Tentative Date April 16, 2018

During the Book of Terms Competition, student-formed teams of 4 will be required to study, comprehend and interpret the content found in the official book that ISPOR has chosen to be used as its "Book of Terms" over a 3-week period. Each team (4 students) will use their quick wit, reflexes and the Book of Terms knowledge that they have refined or acquired over the last three weeks to answer questions that have been formulated using the information found in the book of terms. The competition will require participants to apply clinical and Pharmacoeconomic info/skills as they work as a team to beat other teams. It is our hope that the winning team will be available to attend this year's ISPOR conference to represent Mercer College of Pharmacy in the Book of Terms Competition.

University of Twente, Netherlands

The ISPOR Student Chapter enabled us to invite highly qualified speakers to our educational symposium. For this symposium, students from multiple educational programs were invited who had the opportunity to benefit from the knowledge and insights that were provided by these speakers. Furthermore, our members had the opportunity to further expand their professional network to improve on the possibility to establish valuable future collaborations. Furthermore, by having an active student chapter we improved on the financial resources which were necessary to take all our junior researchers and our PhD candidates to the annual European ISPOR congress.

We believe that we have shown exceptional motivation to contribute to the ISPOR professional society by organizing valuable events and retrieving financial resources enabling attendance to the ISPOR European meeting for all of our members. We utilized the valuable ISPOR resources to provide the opportunity to improve on the professional network of our members and even the students within our educational programs.

Examples:

Educational Activities:

We reached out to the directors of all relevant educational programs at our university to establish a collaboration so that approximately 400 students of these educational programs are invited to our events, our events align with the programs, and resources are shared and used efficiently. The educational programs with which collaboration was sought and established are: Health Sciences, Technical Medicine, Biomedical Engineering, and Industrial Engineering and Management. After establishing these collaborations we organized an Educational Symposium on "Developing, Evaluating, and Implementing Healthcare Interventions: applying methodologies in practice" in which five highly qualified (international) speakers from key institutions and a professional discussion leader spoke about Point-of-Care-Tests. The speakers represented different perspectives: government (National Institute for Health and Care Excellence [NICE], UK), industry (Philips), clinical (University of Amsterdam, Jeroen Bosch Hospital), and academic (University of Twente). The target audience were both senior staff from within and outside the university and Health Sciences, Technical Medicine, Biomedical Engineering, and Industrial Engineering and Management students. With approximately 100 attendees, the first edition of this educational symposium was considered a great success!

In addition, our president-elect at the time (Sofie Berghuis) organized a Course Track in the CuriousU Summer School. The track was named "The Future of Health Technology" and all officers contributed lectures to the Course Track. We earned approximately €2,000.- for our ISPOR Student Chapter with this event. Based on the feedback and our personal experiences it was a great success!

Volunteer Activities:

We have supported the open days at the University of Twente in which we tried to make new and young people enthusiastic for our profession. For these days we have developed a Quiz which gave insights in questions that you will learn to answer in the educational program of Health Sciences. Furthermore, we have provided several lectures on health economics and statistics for bachelor and master students health sciences.

Social Activities:

We organized a movie night for all members of our Student Chapter during which we watched the PhD movie.

Encourage Faculty Advisor & Student Collaboration Across Chapters

- Leverage the communication lists for both students/faculty to enhance communication between presidents and also committees (i.e. google spreadsheet of chapter presidents & committee members, FAC Directory);
- Keep the Faculty Advisor (FA) in the loop about upcoming activities to help promote through channels (i.e. email list of all students in the program and/or email to other professors to distribute to their students);
- Join other chapters' meetings through the use of technology like Skype, Google Hangouts, Web Conferencing technology, etc.;
- Increase awareness of ISPOR resources (i.e. FAC database on website so FA's can connect with other FA's, the Student Council Roster, and the Chapter President Resource Center);
- Organizing common events and communicating with other chapters that are nearby so they are aware;
- Formation of a regional liaison position and quarterly teleconferences to connect Chapter Presidents within a region (Latin America, Europe, Asia Pacific, Africa). This will provide feedback from those who are not able to attend teleconferences due to time zone. Regional liaison will report to SN Chair & ISPOR Staff and participate on the monthly teleconference to keep everyone up to date.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS: This content was developed as a result of discussion by ISPOR students, staff and faculty advisors during the Student & Faculty Luncheon at the ISPOR European Congress Meeting in Glasgow on November 7, 2017.

- Attend events from other student organizations on campus and recruit them to an ISPOR event;
- Work with your Faculty Advisor to identify key professors in those programs and ask him/her to invite them to a meeting to discuss how to work together;
- Create promotional flyers tailored to the various disciplines;
- Work with consultancy or ISPOR Sponsors to get real world experience opportunities;
- Organized drinks to invite individuals from other programs;
- Collaborate with another student organization on campus (i.e. AMCP, DIA, ISPE, IHEA, EuHea, ASCO, SMDM);
- Show how Health Economics can explain other areas (Epi studies, vaccination, etc.);
- Hosting bake sales or information sessions during beginning of the year to invite all students;
- Speak with other communities within your University like a general PhD network.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS: This content was developed as a result of discussion by ISPOR students, staff and faculty advisors during the Student & Faculty Luncheon at the ISPOR European Congress Meeting in Glasgow on November 7, 2017.

Improve Student & Faculty Advisor Communication

- Invite faculty to planning sessions one (1) each year or once each semester;
- Communicate information received from Faculty Advisor (FA) to students in Chapter and vice-versa;
- Schedule a once per month skype or teleconference between FA & Chapter President;
- Increase awareness of ISPOR resources (i.e. The FAC database on the website so FA's can connect with other FA's, the Student Council Roster, and the Chapter President Resource Center);
- Invite FA to Chapter President Teleconferences or the Virtual Retreat (optional to attend based on schedule) & make FA aware of archived teleconferences for educational purposes.

Identify Speakers For Chapter Events Or Webinars

- Social Media – (Search for most active individuals on LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter for topics that are HEOR related);
- Networking with your Faculty members to help identify speakers that are prominent in your alumni network or at other Universities;
- See who is speaking for other chapters or at other Conferences;
- Contact the ISPOR staff and ask if they can provide some recommendations on speakers based on the topic you want to focus on;
- Identify topics of interest and then search for individuals that have expertise in those areas;
- Join the ISPOR LinkedIn Group and see who is active in the group;
- Send out an email to all professors in the program through the Faculty Advisor to solicit for potential parties interested in speaking for the Chapter;
- Invite speakers to do virtual presentations for your chapter through identifying Skype or another webcasting technology that your University offers. (You may also ask ISPOR to set up a Webex for the presentation provided we can promote it to all ISPOR Students.)
- Search for topics of interest on YouTube, TED, or other social media outlets to identify thought leaders and view the presentations they give to ensure they are a quality presenter.
